

THE NEW HAVEN FOLK ALLIANCE
Save the Date — Our Special May 10th Presentation

Remembering Nicola Sacco & Bartolomeo Vanzetti

presented by

Charlie King & Karen Brandow

"One of the finest singers and songwriters of our time." -Pete Seeger

Wrongfully executed in 1927 by the state of Massachusetts, these immigrant workers, labor organizers, war resisters, and anarchists were tried for their politics on trumped-up charges of burglary and robbery and the case gained international attention. This special folk music tribute show, part of this year's City-wide observance of the 75th anniversary of their deaths, explores their story through letters, poetry, history, narrative and song.

Charlie King, author of the world's best-loved song about Sacco and Vanzetti, "Two Good Arms", has fought for progress through his music for over thirty-five years. Since 1998 Karen Brandow has added high musical ability and magical harmonies. Billboard says, "With encouraging regularity, Charlie King emerges from his self-reflection to remind us of the happy resilience of the human spirit... with unvarying taste, musical skill, and charm." —"Charlie and Karen give us two voices that complement each other beautifully and instrumentation that is spare, all acoustic and just right." - Victory Music Review, Seattle, WA
